

SADS UK is not responsible for any Community Public Access Defibrillator (CPAD). CPAD schemes must be installed in consultation with your local ambulance service and registered with them.

In the event of an emergency 999 must be contacted prior to / or simultaneously with the use of a defibrillator.